

Rowington Parish Council seeks New Councillors

Would you like to help your local community by becoming a Parish Councillor?

Do you have an hour a month you could spare to attend meetings and help with the running of the Council?

If so, we would like to hear from you. This is a voluntary role and there is a lot of satisfaction to be gained from helping run local services for local people.

Rowington Parish Council is within Warwick District with a strong interest and responsibility in the wellbeing of the local community.

The area covers the communities of Rowington, Turner's Green, Lawsonford, Pinley Green, Holywell and Mousley End.

It represents approximately 780 potential electors in 450 properties and is made up of nine councillors who meet regularly to make decisions on the work and direction of the Parish Council.

Parish Councillors have an active interest and concern for their local community. They represent local people and work in partnership with them and others when necessary.

The Parish Council helps provide local services and facilities, taking decisions that form the policies of the Parish Council.

Rowington Parish Council's responsibilities and work fall into three main categories:

Representing the local community

Delivery of services to meet local needs

Striving to improve the quality of life in the parish.
